RE: West Coast Bible College and Seminary

Dear Mr. Harrison:

Your request for exemption under Texas Education Code, Section 132.002(a)(2) is granted.

Victorious Life Church dba West Coast Bible College and Seminary is granted exemption as a non-profit school that is owned, controlled, operated, and conducted by a bona fide religious organization that is exempt from property taxation.

Based on the information provided it is our understanding that the school conducts its training in an on-line format, but has physical locations in Waco, Texas and Los Angeles, California.

You should inform this agency of any changes in your method of operation, programs, school name or location, since a change may jeopardize this exemption. In that case, you may need to secure a Certificate of Approval in advance of any advertising, soliciting or operating as a Career School. Be advised that you are responsible for adhering to the provisions of your exempt status and violation of these provisions could result in revocation of the exemption, recommendation of penalties and referral to the Office of the Attorney General for further action.

Exemption status means Victorious Life Church dba West Coast Bible College and Seminary is not approved or regulated by the Texas Workforce Commission. This means we have not approved the curriculum, classrooms, teachers, or any other matters related to this school/program. On-site visits will not be conducted at West Coast Bible College and Seminary.

Further, this letter of exemption does not constitute approval, accreditation, or licensure of this school and/or program (s) under Texas law.

Thank you for your cooperation and assistance in this matter. If you have any further questions or require additional assistance, please do not hesitate to contact me at (512) 463-6831.

Sincerely,

Steve Rye
Director of Integrated Service Area Management
